THE South-Carolina Gazette.

From MONDAY June 11th, to MONDAY June 18th, 1750.

Mr. Timothy,

By inserting the incloſed in your next Gazette, you will oblige many of your conſtant Readers, &c.

To all whom it may concern,

WHEREAS Mr. Jonathan Bryan has been pleaſed to give out a very injurious and falſe report, concerning my behaviour at his houſe, in my way to the Orphan-Houſe in Georgia, ſome time in or about the month of April 1748, as being very indecent and unbecoming my character; I am adviſed by my friends, to publiſh the following letter, wrote by that gentleman to me, in the month of Auguſt following, the original of which letter, all in the proper hand writing of Mr. Bryan, I am and ſhall be ready to produce and ſhew to any perſon deſiring to ſee the ſame, and from whence the world may judge, whether it is poſſible, I could juſtly deſerve to have thoſe ſevere things ſaid of me which this gentleman has taken the liberty to do? I ſhall at preſent ſay no more, than that I leave the unprejudiced part of the world to compare Mr. Bryan's reports of my conduct at his houſe, with the following letter wrote by him to me, four months after I had been there. SAMUEL FAYRWEATHER.

To the Rev. Mr. Samuel Fairwather, in Charles-Town, &c.

" Very Dear Sir

I Received your kind letter by Mr. Prioleau and heartily thank you for the contents, I ſhould rejoice to ſee you again up in theſe parts, I think you give ſome hopes once more to ſee you, it is with pleaſure I reflect on the hours I ſpent in your company, and the delightful ſound of the goſpel which drop'd from your lips ſeems ſtill freſh in my ears, O how beautiful are the feet of thoſe that preach the goſpel of peace, Dear Sir you have been liberally educated in the ſchool of our lord Chriſt and ſure I am gratitude conſtrains you to do all you can in return for him who thus gives guifts to men, Dear Sir you are call'd to an honourable imployment, and a work of great importance, therefore be diligent, and vigilent, watch for ſouls knowing you muſt give acount, therefor lift up your voice and ſpare not, loudly proclame the glories of the great Emanuel— O that it may go out through all the earth & and his word to the ends of the world when ſhall that happy time come that his righteouſneſs ſhall overflow the earth lord haſten thy kingdom and accompliſh thy promis Amen.———

" It is now very late and tomorrow is the ſolemnity of the lord ſupper to be adminiſterd at our meeting we have no one to aſſiſt Mr. Hutſon in the duties of the day. (I wiſh for you) but may the lord make up that Deficiency by giveing his own preſence at his own ordinance Amen

" Fair you well, I have no time to coppy the above, my kind love to Mr. Smith and family

Your Affectionate Servant in Jeſus Chriſt

JONATHAN BRYAN

☞ It is true this letter wants a date, but ſeveral paſſages ſhew that it was wrote a good while after I was at his houſe.—Mr. Prioleau, who delivered him my letter, brought back this anſwer, and I may declare the time; and beſides, it was wrote in a hurry the night before the ſacrament was adminiſtered by Mr. Hutſon, at his meeting, by which the date can be eaſily traced out.

Some gentlemen of undoubted character in Charles-Town, having aſked Mr. Bryan, at what time it was he firſt beleived that baſe ſtory ſpread againſt me, he declared it was within a fortnight or three weeks after the firſt time I was at his houſe, and this he ſaid before two different companies.——

And now, all I deſire of the world in this matter is, to compare that Declaration with the above letter, and probably ſomething worſe than abſurdity will appear in his conduct: However, it is proper to notice, that in conſequence of the invitation Mr. Bryan gave me in ſaid letter to come again to his houſe, I went a ſecond time; in November 1748, and he then received me very courteouſly, gave me his hand, ſaluted me with a kiſs, and bid me a hearty welcome; all the time I remain'd with him, he treated me with uncommon reſpect and made me ſeveral preſents; and, on my departure, brought me on my way to town, in his own chair, as far as Comb bee bridge, to have as much of my good company (as he was pleaſed to expreſs it) as he could, and deſired I would ſo contrive it, as that I might be up again at his houſe as ſoon as poſſible, that he might again reap the benefit of my preaching and converſation.

I hope and truſt every perſon of candor will excuſe my repeating thus publickly, theſe things, which common modeſty and decency would otherwiſe oblige me to forbear, were it not neceſſary for opening the eyes of ſome perſons thus to contraſt Mr. Bryan's former uſage and behaviour to me, with his late falſe and ſcandalous reports of me.

There is one thing I muſt take notice of before I conclude, Probably ſome gentlemen may wonder, why I don't proſecute Mr. Bryan; but compaſſion for his family won't allow me to liſten to any advice of that kind, and there is the leſs need for it, as I am conſcious of my being innocent, and whilſt I have the ſatisfaction to think, that the indifferent part of the world look upon me in that light; neither do I judge it ſo decent in a miniſter, to ſhew an eagerneſs to have redreſs from the law, when his innocence doth appear in another manner.

I ſhall only add, that I am willing, if call'd upon, to atteſt the facts of the above paper, upon oath.

SAMUEL FAYRWEATHER.

Cork, Jan. 30. The Tide here, on Sunday and laſt Night, ſwell'd to ſo prodigious a Height, that the whole Town was under Water. In the Houſes on Dunicomb's Marſh, the Water was four feet deep, and three in the Middle of the City. The Damage done to the Merchants is incredible. There is certain Advice this Morning, that a Briſtol Ship, lately the Grand Turk Privateer, laden with Bale Goods, was daſh'd to Pieces at the Seven Heads, in the late Storm on Friday Night, and fifteen of the Crew periſh'd.

Carrickfergus, Jan. 31. Yeſterday was the higheſt Tide ever known here, which has cauſed great Deſtruction. The Key is almoſt levelled both fore Side and back Side, and ſeveral Veſſels ſtranded. Several Houſes both in the Iriſh and Scotch Quarter, waſhed down; the Road in the Scotch Quarter is waſhed to near the Houſes, that neither Coach nor Cart can go over it, and ſeveral Parts of the Town Wall waſhed down.

Paris, Feb. 6. They write from Rochelle, that a Manufactory of Glaſs has lately been eſtabliſhed there with ſuch Succeſs, that it is not at all inferior in Beauty to the Engliſh Flint Glaſs.

Edinburgh, Jan. 6. Tueſday laſt there happened at Greenock the higheſt Tide that has been known theſe 50 Years, by which we hear great Damage is done to Tobacco and other Goods in the low Cellars.

Francfort, Feb. 8. The Magiſtracy, in Compliance with the King of Pruſſia's Letter in Favour of the Proteſtants of this City, have come to a Reſolution to permit them to build a Church here, and exerciſe their Religion in a public Manner.

London, Feb. 10. By the Betſey and Peggy (arrived in the River from Gibraltar, which Place ſhe left the 5th Inſtant, O.S.) there is an Account, that all Differences are made up with the Court of Morocco; that Matters had like to have come to Extremities, but that that no Hoſtilities were committed, except the groſs Inſult upon the Britiſh Ambaſſador and his Attendants; and that the Engliſh now carry on a free and open Trade at Tangiers, Sallee, and Tetuan.

London, Feb. 10. According to private Letters from Warſaw, the Election of a Duke of Courland muſt e'er long come on, as the States of that Dutchy are ſucceſſively repairing to Mittau, and as it does not appear that there is any other Buſineſs for them to go upon.

London, Feb. 16. Among the many Rationales that will be given, with reſpect to the late trembling of the Earth, it is ſaid that Sir Iſaac Newton predicted, that in the Beginning of the year 1750 the Planet Jupiter would in its Paſſage be ſo near our Globe, as poſſibly to bruſh it; if ſo, it would give the Earth a great Shake.

We hear that the Exciſe of 25 per Cent. on all Teas, will be taken off this Seſſion of Parliament, whereby the Smuggling of Tea will intirely be prevented, many a poor Man's Life will be ſaved, and a foreign European Importation be quite diſencouraged.

London, Feb. 10. We hear that Mynheer Bentinck, one of the States of Holland, who came here a few Days ago on Affairs of great Importance, relating to the Fiſhery, having adjuſted every Thing to Satisfaction, ſet out to embark this Morning for Holland.
